THE QUALITY OF A BUGGY

SHOWS IN ITS USE.

If you want a buggy of which you can always be sure we have it. It will OUT-WEAR, OUT-LOOK and OUT-STAY any buggy made anywhere by anybody, (no exception whatever) and look better when you have gotten tired of it than most buggies do after 1 or 2 years use. This sounds big and might seem like WIND, but we are back of it all. Our guarantee on this buggy is the strongest ever given on ANY BUGGY by ANY FIRM.

We guarantee it fully against any defect in material for TWO YEARS from date of purchase. For one year we guarantee wheels, axles, springs, running gear and shafts AGAINST BREAKAGE from any cause whatever. No questions asked at all. If your horse runs away, if you drive over a stump, in fact an accident of any kind breaking up your buggy will be fully covered."

That is the quality of this buggy and the price right. We still have the best, cheap, buggy ever sold in this county. Let us show them to you.

INDIAN GRAVES

Plowed up Near Pee Dee by Mr. F. E. Luttrell.

One Skeleton in a Remarkably Good State of Preservation.

Mr. F. E. Luttrell, of near Pee Dee, while plowing in his field Wednesday, unearthed part of an Indian burying ground. It was on a hillside where the soil had been getting lower and lower for years and the graves when uncovered were within a foot of the surface.

One skeleton, evidently buried in the soil, was plowed up and the bones broken to pieces and close by the plow knocked off one of the top rocks of rude stone vault, built to enclose a body, by making bottom, sides and top of flat stones. In this vault was found the well-preserved skeleton of an Indian brave, who had been buried with a bundle of arrows in one hand and with a "grinding stone" by his side. The arrow heads were of the kind that used to be common in this section.

Mr. Luttrell removed the bones and will reinter them in some other place.

FLAGMAN'S CLOSE CALL.

Hit by Cattle Guard and Thrown to Ground.

L. B. Dunning, I. C. flagman between Hopkinsville and Princeton, fell from the train about a mile north of Cerulean last Monday and was pretty badly bruised. Dunning was watching a hot box from the lower step when he was hit by a cattle guard and knocked from the rapidly moving train. His shoulder was injured and he also sustained some bad bruises about the body. He was not missed by the train men until the train was pulling out of Cobb. When Princeton was reached a message there stated that Dunning was not fatally hurt. He was able to return to Cerulean unaided.

He will be able to resume his run in a few days.

HORSE'S LUNGS

Pierced By Shaft But Animal Will Recover.

A horse driven by Mr. C. W. Smithson, of Howell, became frightened by a train at Herndon last Friday and in its efforts to run off twisted one of the shafts in such a manner that it entered the animal's body. The wood penetrated twelve inches and passed through the horse's lungs. The wound, which was considered at the time necessarily fatal, is healing nicely, and it is thought that the animal will be entirely well in a short while.

THROWN TO THE GROUND

And Badly Injured, Says Plaintiff, Who Asks Damages.

Lizzie Warfield, col., has filed suit against the L. & N. railroad company for $1,000 damages.

Plaintiff alleges that on Nov. 13 last, while driving in a buggy on Tenth street her horse and vehicle were struck by one of the company's trains and that she was thrown to the ground and badly injured. She further states in her petition that the accident was due to the carelessness and negligence of the company's agents, servants and employees.

Mrs. Lizzie Royster, wife of Dr. C. G. Royster, of Trenton, died Tuesday, after a long illness, of consumption. She is survived by a husband and three children.

TOBACCO MARKET.

Heavy Receipts and Offerings of the Weed.

Planters Busy and Loose Deliveries Not Quite so Large as Last Week.

The offerings of tobacco on the local market this week were nearly three hundred hogsheads. Much of the weed was in very bad order, however, and rejections were numerous.

Receipts for the week were 580 hogsheads and for the year, $405 hogshead.

Planters are very busy with farm work and as a consequence there has been a falling off in loose receipts. It is estimated that three-fourths of the crop of 1901 is now out of the hands of the farmer.

Prices this week were as follows: Fine leaf, $10 to $14; Medium to good leaf, $6 to $7.50; Good lugs, $5 to $6.30; Common lugs, $4 to $5.

A Fine Issue.

The May number of The Delineator is the third of the great Spring issues in both fashion and literary features and is the most notable of the season. With the many artistic designs for garments for late Spring wear come advanced Summer fashions from the hands of eminent designers, and in attractiveness these styles have probably never been surpassed. An article of especial interest at this season is on graduation dresses. The chief literary contribution is The Educational Value of Some Recent Plays, written by Norman Hopgood, the celebrated critic, and splendidly illustrated. Dr. Elliott's recollections of the child Patti, at the time of her first benefit, make one of the most delightful papers in the series of Notable Women; and in a different vein Clara E. Laughlin tells the story of the gifted Shelley's unfortunate marriage and its results. Two very pictorial as well as practical subjects are Animal Photography, in which some most interesting records of animal life are presented directly from nature, and Basket-Ball, in the series of Athletes for Women, the fine pictures being made from photographs from pictures taken during the play. For the children Lina Beard introduces some new and interesting Pastimes. The fiction is The Hand of Providence, by Luellen Teters, and the Tourney of Hunting Hill, by Harriet Riddle Davis, both of which are beautifully illustrated.

Mr. John Larkin has resigned his position with the Postal Telegraph Company at Hopkinsville to accept the position of day operator for the L. & N. in this city to succeed Mr. Frank D. Coffey, and has moved here preparatory to assuming his duties. Mr. Larkin married Miss Laura Harvey, of this place, and has many friends here. Mr. Coffey is not as yet decided as to his future plans, but contemplates going to Honolulu where he has some brothers. Wherever he may engage, he will have the best wishes of a host of Madisonville friends—Madisonville Hustler.

REAR ADMIRAL TERRY.

Kentucky Naval Officer Ranking Second in the Service.

Rear Admiral Silas Wright Terry, who will, in the course of the next few months, become the senior naval officer of the United States, ranking next to Admiral George Dewey, is a native of Kentucky, being born and reared in Trigg county. With a record of forty-four years' active service, twenty-nine years and six months of sea duty and fourteen years and six months of shore service, his entire career is without blot or blemish.

Admiral Terry was born December 28, 1841, in the almost unknown little village of Wallonia, in Trigg county. His father was Abner R. Terry, a highly educated Virginia gentleman, who moved with his family to Kentucky in 1829 and engaged in mercantile pursuits at Wallonia until 1844, when he moved to Cadiz, the county seat of Trigg county, and continued successfully in business until his death in 1848. His mother was a Miss Dyer, of an old and representative family of Henry county, Va.

At Cadiz the future Admiral received what would now be termed a common school education, attending the school conducted at that place by Prof. Quint M. Tyler, a noted teacher hailing from Tennessee. In September, 1858, through the influence of the Hon. Henry C. Burnett, the representative in Congress at that time from the First district of Kentucky, he was appointed an acting midshipman.

Admiral Terry has a devoted wife, who was Miss Lou Mason, a daughter of Judge John Thompson Mason, who has represented the Annapolis district in Congress several terms, and at the time of his death was one of the judges of the Supreme Court of Maryland. Two children have blessed this union. Capt. Porter, U. S. N., a son of Admiral Porter, his former commanding officer, married a sister of Miss Mason. Admiral Terry and his family are consistent members of the Episcopal church. He owns an elegant mansion in Annapolis, where he spends all his time when off duty.

He has three brothers and four sisters living in the neighborhood of Cadiz. Two of his brothers fought and bled for the Confederate cause while he was giving such valuable service to the Federal navy. Both his brothers rose to the rank of Captain in the Confederate army, Capt. F. G. Terry being with Forrest and other leaders of infantry, and was also at the siege of Vicksburg, besides other notable battles, never failing to show the high courage which seems to have been a natural trait of the family. His other brother, Capt. Ben D. Terry, who fought for the Lost Cause, was in the command of that dashing leader, Gen. John H. Morgan, and no matter how perilous or fatiguing the undertaking he was always ready and willing to go where his leader pointed the way.

Mr. John Larkin has resigned his position with the Postal Telegraph Company at Hopkinsville to accept the position of day operator for the L. & N. in this city to succeed Mr. Frank D. Coffey, and has moved here preparatory to assuming his duties. Mr. Larkin married Miss Laura Harvey, of this place, and has many friends here. Mr. Coffey is not as yet decided as to his future plans, but contemplates going to Honolulu where he has some brothers. Wherever he may engage, he will have the best wishes of a host of Madisonville friends—Madisonville Hustler.

BLIND WOMEN

If one woman saw another woman who was blind groping her way with doubtful and uncertain steps, the natural womanly impulse would be to take the blind woman by the hand and guide her. It is a similar womanly impulse which leads the women who have been cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription to give their testimony to the cures they have experienced, in the hope and desire that it may be of help to some other suffering woman.

There are thousands of women groping their way blindly with hesitating and uncertain steps toward the much desired goal of health. To such women are stretched out the guiding, helpful hands of those who have attained womanly health, to lead them to their desired haven. Let every woman who suffers from womanly diseases and who reads these letters remember that they point to a path of healing which is so sure that only one woman in fifty who uses "Favorite Prescription" falls short of a perfect and permanent cure.

"I was sick for over two years with what one doctor said was inflammation of the ovary," writes Mrs. J. Curlett, of Main Street, Weston, York Co., Ont. "Another doctor did not understand my case. One day I received one of your little books, and after reading it I thought I would write you and see if you could do me any good. I could hardly put one foot before the other when I wrote, and could not possibly stand up straight. I could not really describe what I suffered; pain at my heart, headache, and it seemed a thousand other ills, as though every portion of my body had something the matter with it. After writing to you I received a very kind letter indeed, telling me what treatment to use. I followed your advice and can say to-day that my health is better than ever before in my life. I took both 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' You may know it certainly made a great change in my looks, when, one day after taking the medicine, I chanced to meet our family doctor and he said, 'Why, Mrs. Curlett, you are looking a great deal better than you did some time ago.' When the doctor said anything like that you know that it must be a wonderful change, for, as a general rule, they like to tell people they look sick. I really think that Dr. R. V. Pierce's treatment is a God-send to all women, and if any one ailing from any female trouble whatever, no matter what it may be, will write to him I am positive that they will find one that will cure them. I have recommended Dr. Pierce's medicines to quite a few and will ever continue to do so, for I know from experience what they are."

The results which follow the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription are positive, not negative—permanent, not transient. It would be a great relief to a suffering woman if she could be helped so as not to feel badly. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes a woman feel positively well. Some women would be happy if they didn't have to suffer all the time. "Favorite Prescription" cures them so that they do not suffer any of the time. They are made well. They feel well. They look well. Good looks and bad health never go together. The very fountain of beauty is health. When the womanly organism is diseased the general health is undermined. The skin loses its healthful tint, the body falls off in flesh, and the dragging step keeps pace with the languor of the body. When womanly diseases are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the skin regains its hue of health, the body puts on flesh and the light, elastic step keeps time and to the buoyant feeling of vigorous health.

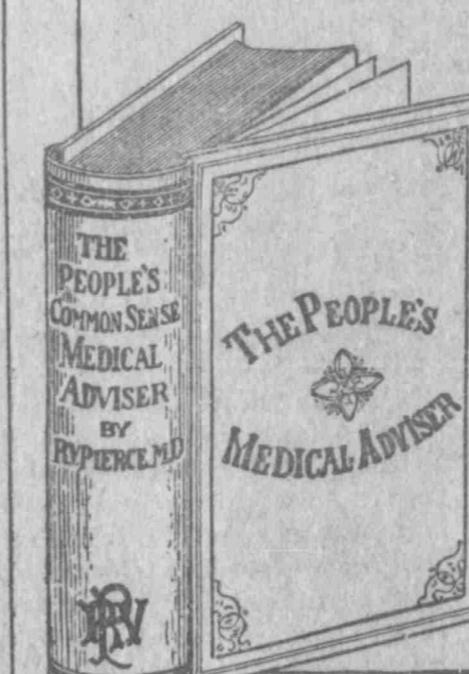

"With pleasure I send a few lines to let you know that I feel much better than for eight years before taking your 'Favorite Prescription,'" writes Mrs. Pierce Geise, of 822 East Phila. Street, York, Pa. "Will recommend Dr. Pierce's medicine to every person who may inquire as to what it has done for me. I was troubled with female weakness, and began to think I never would be well. If I had continued the treatment prescribed by my doctor I don't know what would have become of me. When your treatment was commenced my weight was 108 pounds; at present it is 130. Have healthy color, and my friends say I look well. My best thanks to you and best wishes, too, for what you have done for me."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It is the best tonic and nervine for weak, run-down women. It cures headache, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness and promotes a healthy appetite.

Dr. Pierce invites sick women, especially those suffering from diseases of long standing, to consult him by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Thousands of women have taken advantage of Dr. Pierce's offer of free consultation by letter, and Mrs. Curlett only voices the general sentiment expressed by those grateful women when she writes in her letter above: "I really think that Dr. R. V. Pierce's treatment is a God-send to all women, and if any one ailing from any female trouble whatever, no matter what it may be, will write to him I am positive they will find one who will cure them." Mrs. Curlett speaks from experience. What has been done for her is being done daily for other weak and sick women.

Sometimes a dealer, tempted by the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious preparations, will offer a substitute for "Favorite Prescription" as "just as good." Judged by its record of cures of womanly ills, there is no other medicine just as good as "Favorite Prescription."

SEVENTEEN YEAR LOCUSTS

Will Be Here This Year, Arriving Next Month.

This is to be by far the worst "locust year" experienced in this country since 1885. Next month will witness the sudden onslaught, in twenty States simultaneously, of the largest brood of "seventeen-year locusts" known to science. This vast insect army, numbering countless billions, has been followed in its ravages from the year 1715, since when it has never failed to reappear in the last week of May at regular intervals of seventeen years. Wherever it appeared in 1885, the year of its last outbreak, it is practically sure to reappear this year. The entomologists of the Department of Agriculture are thus able to forecast its field of operations for next month.

The States to be involved are New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Ohio, West Virginia, Massachusetts, Vermont, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Wisconsin, Alabama, Georgia, North Carolina and Tennessee.

Kentucky will suffer worst in Barren, Breckinridge, Carroll, Casey, Daviess, Franklin, Jefferson, Kenton, McLean, Meade, Ohio, Oldham, Trimble and perhaps Fayette, Hart, Henderson and Lawrence counties. Indiana will feel the plague worse than any State in the danger belt.

"It is the little rift within the lute which ever widening, makes the music mute." It is just a little in the health of a woman often, which gradually takes the spring from her step, the light from her eyes, the rose from her cheek and the music from her voice. Perhaps the bug-bear which has frightened the woman from the timely help needed at the beginning has been the dreaded questions, the obnoxious examination, the local treatments, of the home physician. There is no need for these. Nor is there need for continued suffering. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can be relied on by every woman, suffering from what are called "female troubles," to renew the health and cure the disease. Women are astonished at the results of the use of this medicine. It not only makes weak women "robust and rosy cheeked," but it gives them back the vigor and vitality of youth.

Free. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 pages, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

LONDON'S BACKWARDNESS.

Behind Other Capitals in the Matter of Government.

An Englishman who says that he has been "for many years traveling abroad" unburdens himself to me on his disappointment on returning to London and finding it, instead of the first city in the world, far behind every other great capital in matters pertaining to the comfort of its citizens. He is shocked, says London Truth, to see scavenging carts collecting refuse from houses at all hours of the day, and he wonders why such work is not required to be performed at an early hour in the morning. He does not understand why coal carts, heavy wagons and similar traffic are allowed to crawl along main thoroughfares during business hours, instead of being compelled to proceed by side streets.

He is aghast, like everybody else, at the incessant blocking of traffic by the opening up of roadways, and asks why, when it is unavoidable, all such work is not prosecuted continuously, day and night, by relays until it is completed. He is astonished to find that he cannot obtain a postage stamp in the largest of London railway stations, so that he has to go outside in search of a post office when he wants to post a letter in a hurry. He is disgusted at the position of many of the post offices, where there are no proper conveniences for writing. He finds our milk and meat supplies — taking them all round — the worst in any civilized town, and he gives from personal experience a horrible example of the facilities for sending diseased meat to market. He might easily have lengthened the list. We all know of these things, and most of us are continually groaning over one or other of them, but the recital may help to remind the more lethargic-minded how far we are as yet from being a truly progressive community, notwithstanding a "megaomaniac" county council and a whole army of chained and robed minor municipal authorities.

MR. DULIN OBJECTS

To Fiscal Court's Plan of Road Improvement.

Crofton, Ky., April 14, 1902.

EDITOR KENTUCKIAN:

I see an article in the KENTUCKIAN of April 1st, 1902, from Mr. C. F. Jarrett, which he requested published for the purpose of bringing about a discussion, so that from a variety of opinions there might be devised a better and cheaper system of keeping up the public roads than the one now in force. As you have been very liberal in opening the columns of your paper, that they might express themselves on questions of public interest, I presume once more upon your kindness to request that you publish this letter.

I must beg leave to differ from my friend, Mr. Jarrett. He says, when the county bought the pikes, he and his associates gave up a good thing. Leaving the impression that the pikes were sold to the county for much less than their cash value. The facts, however, the owners of the pikes were glad to unload their "white elephant" on the county and every man in the county who is posted in county affairs, knows that the company has been anxious to get rid of their pikes for a number of years.

Mr. Jarrett says that these pikes must now be kept in repair from a point of county ownership. Is this 52 miles of pikes the only road bed the county has? Does he know that the county has at this time 2,200 miles of public road bed to keep up in some way. From his article, I take it that he means that it is only necessary at present to keep up the 52 miles of pikes and let the 2,148 miles wait until he and others in the south part of the county can have the pikes repaired out to their gates. The unfortunate victims down here in the mud and hills do not deserve anything simply because we do not live in South Christian or in Hopkinsville.

He says the people still in the mud must wait. We will not wait unless it is law for us to wait. We do not intend that this $40,000, placed in the hands of the Road Supervisor shall all be placed in one section of the county, on top of the $75,000 derived from the sale of the pike bonds. If such is law then we will submit, otherwise we will not.

Mr. Jarrett also says: "After this is done, the earliest available money should be spent on the road to the coal mines, as every man, woman and child is interested in cheaper coal and that is what a good road means to them." Now, this is as near right and justice as Mr. Jarrett ever gets things when it comes to placing the people's money on the public roads of the county. I suppose he had reference to the men, women and children of South Christian and of Hopkinsville, when he speaks of "cheaper coal." If this is not true please tell me, sir, how the men, women, and children in the extreme northwestern portions of the county can be benefitted by building a pike from Hopkinsville to the coal banks? This will be a blessing to your section, also to the city of Hopkinsville, which was the end sought from the very beginning of the move to have the county buy the pikes.

You say the Fiscal Court has very wisely made one of its members Superintendent of all the public roads in the county; that it is a new office and it is hoped it is and will be kept entirely non-partisan, with no political favors to ask or grant. I did not know until I read your article that you were ten years behind the workings of the Fiscal Court. It was political favor that created this office, given to a Republican by Democratic members of the court. This Republican member of the court got all that was in this new office and without any restriction whatever.

Now, Charlie, I have said that political favor created this office in the way it now stands. You see, the court consisted of four Democrats and four Republicans and a Republican judge. When the court reached the road dilemma for discussion, and it was decided to have a Road Supervisor, when the vote was taken four Democrats and one Republican voted to create this office, leaving the other three Republicans and the Judge to vote No. Then the vote was taken fixing the salary of this office at $1,200 per year. The same four Democrats and the same Republican voted for the $1,200 salary. When this was done then nominations were in order to supply this office. Esq. McReynolds was placed in nomination for Road Supervisor by one of the Democratic members of the court. Now you will understand that Esq. McReynolds was all the time voting on the Democratic side of the court and was the only man nominated for this office. When the vote was called the four Democrats voted for McReynolds.

When McReynolds' name was called by the clerk he voted for himself. That gave him five votes, cast by four Democrats and himself a Republican, leaving the other three Republicans and the judge on the other side of the political fence. So you see there is more politics in the Fiscal court than there is in all the rest of the state of Kentucky. I ask you and the rest of the tax payers of this county, what have you in the way of Road Supervisor? You have one of the members of the court as Supervisor, who voted to create his office, and voted to fix his salary at $1,200 and then voted himself into this office to get the salary. Had he not voted for himself he could never have been Road Supervisor. Your Road Supervisor virtually put the whole thing in his own hands at his own will. And this is not the most important matter in this deal, in which the tax payers of the county are interested.

The Fiscal Court has set apart twenty-five cents on every $100 of taxable property for road and bridge purposes, which will be in their hands to the Road Supervisor and the contract is now signed, stamped, sealed and delivered and is now a matter of record, and the tax payers must pay the bill. Now will you and the other tax payers submit to this outrage? I don't believe you will. Apply the law and it will remove the obstruction. This whole thing is a new departure in the history of Christian county.

Here you have a Road Supervisor, I am told, that has a $35,000 farm who created his office, fixed his salary, and then voted himself into the office to get the salary. Think of a man with a $35,000 farm out as Superintendent of the roads of the county with the small salary of $1200 per year with about $40,000 of the people's money to scatter at his will.

I would ask you were you to employ the Road Supervisor or myself to manage your farm would you place your money in our hands to employ labor and cultivate any and all your land as we might choose and allow us to pay any price we might desire for labor; employ whom we please without you holding the financial reins? I know you would be far from this. If this be true how can you say "the Fiscal Court has acted wisely," in placing this $40,000 in the hands of any man to throw out to his pets.

I am sorry that a good man has allowed the court to put him in a position in which no man should suffer himself to be placed.

BULLDOG IS STRONG.

He Positively Has No Equal for His Size on Earth.

You've Met Him Frequently, But Perhaps You Do Not Know All His Fine Points, Which Are Here Described.

In point of strength, tenacity and endurance no animal in the world can compare, size for size, with a well-set-up bulldog. Its fighting qualities are, of course, proverbial. Most people, however, only know its exploits from the pictures in the comic papers. Any one who will take the trouble to examine the peculiar equipment of one of these powerful little engines will end by having a greatly increased respect for its qualities, says the New York World.

The enormous strength of the bulldog lies not so much in the size of its muscles as in their arrangement. Years of careful breeding have developed great layers of muscles where they may be used to the best possible bulldog advantage.

Compared with most dogs a bulldog may be said to be deformed. The head, shoulders and forelegs have been developed at the expense of the rest of the body so far as symmetry is concerned. It would almost seem that the breeders had gone out of their way to produce as ugly a specimen of dogflesh as possible.

A bulldog, of course, never runs away. There is no object, therefore, in growing legs on him which would give him speed. His appearance, on the contrary, suggests a battering-ram. The muscles seem to be placed on the legs for pulling, not for propelling the body. In extreme cases we find the bulldog bowlegged, which gives greater power to drag heavy objects or to resist being dragged. The shortness of the legs by bringing the body as near as possible to the ground, also suggests great statility. In training a bulldog it is found that all superfluous flesh disappears more quickly than in the case of other dogs, and that a bulldog in condition carries less superfluous weight than any other breed.

The heaviest layers of muscles are laid on the bulldog's head and neck. The efficiency of a fighter is, of course, measured principally by his quickness and the strength of his jaws. Every well-set-up dog, it will be found, has a thick bunch of muscles at the side of its jaws. In any other breed of dogs this abnormal development would be considered a deformity. It is this powerful little group of muscles which gives the jaw its vice-like grip. The form of the jaw is particularly well adapted to the work it is called upon to do. It is long and broad and set with unusually heavy teeth.

The two long teeth which help to give the bulldog its ferocious appearance are also very valuable weapons. They serve, as it were, to lock up the vice-like jaws when they are once closed upon an object.

The most powerful muscles in the entire frame of the bulldog are those which control the jaws. In case the prey, whatever it may be, slips from this grip, it is certain to be caught and held by the interlocking teeth in the front of the jaw.

Almost any bulldog, whether in or out of condition, can support its own weight by the grip of its jaws. The marvelous tenacity of this grip is largely due to its ability to hold its own weight by the grip of its front teeth.

Even the young bull pup can lift its own weight by the grip of its jaws. As the dog grows this grip becomes so strong that a bulldog may be swung and jerked about violently without disturbing its hold.

The muscles come to maturity about the fourth year. A bulldog is considered capable of doing its best fighting in its fifth and sixth years.

The average life of a bulldog is 14 years.

New Cure for Seasickness.

Sea water is recommended as a cure for seasickness. In addition to a light diet and a mild purge before starting on a voyage, and loose clothing and a recumbent position in the open air on board ship, the remedy never known to fail is a pint of sea water. This usually acts as an emetic and often as a saline aperient, giving prompt relief from all unpleasant feelings.

Chickens with Long Tails.

A new breed of chickens just received in New York from China has tails 12 feet long. They are kept in cages, and when they are taken out for exercise an attendant goes along to hold up the feathers. The hens lay 30 eggs a year, which are hatched by other hens.

AFTER

The guest is gone the smile slips from the face of the hostess and she gives up to the pain which racks her body. Many a woman entertains and wears a smile while her back aches and her nerves quiver with pain. Surely any medicine which offers relief to women would be worth a trial under such conditions. But when the woman's medicine, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, is offered with the proof of efficacy in thousands of well attested cures, what excuse can then be offered for suffering longer?

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It dries enfeebled drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"It is with the greatest pleasure I write you the benefit my mother has received from your Favorite Prescription" and "Golden Medical Discovery," says Miss Carrie Johnson of Louisville, Ky. "She suffered entombed misery with uterine disease and nervousness, and had a constant roaring and ringing noise in her head. After taking six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' she was entirely cured."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets stimulate the liver.

ORGAN TOO BIG,

And Carnegie's Gift Will Cost the Church Heavily.

Recently Andrew Carnegie announced that he would give a $10,000 pipe organ to the Belmont Avenue M. E. Church at Youngstown, Ohio. The proper measurements were taken of the organ loft and sent to Mr. Carnegie's expert. The organ was built accordingly. When the instrument arrived it was too large, and the rear part of the church will have to be torn down at a cost of nearly that of the organ so that it can be placed.

ITALIAN LAWMAKERS.

Noisy Scenes the Rule in Chief Legislative Body.

The Italian chamber of deputies is a noisy place, and the American visitors who attend its sessions think better of our house of representatives, says W. E. Curtis, in the Chicago Record-Herald. The disorder is no worse than that which habitually occurs in other European parliaments, those of Austria and Hungary being even worse than that of Italy. The Italians are an excitable people, and introduce a great deal of gymnastics into their oratory and conversation. Hence an orator in the chamber of deputies who swings his arms and gyrates his body like a jumping jack is simply indulging in the national characteristic. If a member of the house of representatives at Washington should act that way the sergeant-at-arms would take him over to the Asylum of St. Elizabeth.

Italian statesmen lose their tempers easily. They are even more hot-headed than the Frenchmen, and therefore the sessions of the chamber are very interesting to people who like to see "scraps." When an orator of one political group makes an assertion that is offensive to the members of another group they do not hesitate to interrupt and contradict him, and frequently five or six members are on the floor gesticulating wildly while the president of the chamber rings a little bell instead of pounding his desk with a mallet, like the speaker of our house at home.

There was a funny scene the other day. A certain socialist agitator from the city of Ravenna named Enrico Ferri made a speech on some subject concerning the working classes and was quite intemperate in some of his assertions—so much so that he was called to order repeatedly. He finally lost his temper and let go of very vigorous and insulting epithets at the distinguished colleagues who had opposed him. For this he was called to order, and, as he refused to take his seat or even stop talking, the president of the chamber directed the chief bouncer to fire him out. This ceremony was performed in a most artistic manner. The sergeant-at-arms seized the honorable gentleman by the seat of his trousers with one hand and his coat collar with the other and hustled him down the main aisle so rapidly that the victim scarcely realized what was going on until he found himself in the vestibule, where he stamped and raged and shouted and behaved generally like an angry Italian.

As soon as the bouncer returned to the chamber and reported to the president that his orders had been executed what might be called a spirit of conciliation took possession. One of the conservatives who had been the target of Signor Ferri's assault arose and in a dignified and gentlemanly manner asked that all reference to the incident be omitted from the official report of the proceedings, and that the order of the president ejecting his antagonist be rescinded. The leaders of the socialist party received the proposition in the same spirit and were explaining to the president and all concerned that Signor Ferri did not intend to give offense or to violate the propriety of the chamber, when their eloquence was drowned by a crashing of glass, and fragments of a large ornamental door went flying in every direction. The disheveled hair and bloodshot eyes of Signor Ferri appeared through the hole that he had broken and he shouted in stentorian tones that the president of the parliament and all its members were a lot of tyrants, despots, swindlers, thieves and hypocrites.

This dramatic performance terminated the proceedings. It was so comical that half the members of the chamber broke into roars of laughter, while signor Ferri's friends, who were testifying to his gentle disposition and kindly sentiments, sat down in confusion.

A Letter Four Yards Long.

The letter of apology recently sent by the emperor of China to the German emperor is described as an exquisite work of art. It is painted on a single piece of yellow silk over four yards in length, and it is beautifully illuminated with dragons, flowers and arabesques; embroidered in gold thread and silk of various colors. The work is so perfectly executed that at first sight the embroidery is mistaken for enamel. The latter is inclosed in a yellow silk envelope, which is also elaborately embroidered and fastened by ivory studs of the most ingenious character.

JULY 22

Appellate Convention Will Be Held in Paducah.

County Mass Conventions At Court Houses On the 19th.

The First Appellate District Democratic Committee met at Paducah Wednesday and called a delegate convention to meet at Paducah July 22, to nominate a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals. County mass conventions will be held on July 19.

The meeting was harmonious, the only difference of opinion being on the question of precinct conventions, which were voted down by a vote of 9 to 7. Several counties were irregularly represented by visitors who held proxies contrary to the party law, which provides that proxies can only be held and voted by a member of the committee in session. No question was raised, however, against the illegal proxies and all of the candidates express themselves as satisfied with the action of the committee.

Many so-called "bitters" are not medicines, but simply liquids disguised, so as to evade the law. Prickly Ash Bitters is not one of this class. It is strictly a medicine, acting primarily on the kidneys, liver and bowels, and for the dangerous diseases that attack these organs it is a remedy of the first grade. There is nothing objectionable in its taste, it has an agreeable flavor and is acceptable to the most delicate stomach. R. C. Hardwick, Special Agent.

A NOBLE WORK.

Homeless Children Taken Care of By Kentucky Home Society.

Rev. I. W. Bruner, district superintendent of the Kentucky Children's Home Society, is in the city for the purpose of working up public interest in the Home and securing contributions. The Home takes charge of orphan or homeless children and finds homes for them in good families, watching over them until they reach maturity. Mr. Bruner makes this appeal:

The district superintendent will be for a short time in Hopkinsville and Christian county looking after the various interests of the society. There may be children here we ought to have, and, no doubt there are good homes here that should receive some of our children, making themselves and the children happier. Moreover, we wish an annual contribution from every good citizen male and female, and from every Sunday school to support this work. From this highly favored community a cordial and liberal response is expected.

Will you not help to give these children a chance—a chance for character, for an education, a chance for pure home life, for Christian training and heaven?

I. W. BRUNER.

THE TIME IS PAST

For cheap buggies. Very frequently you see a buggy of a superior make, such as WOODHULL, SCHACHT, TROY or COLUMBUS, that has been used constantly for TEN YEARS, some of them FIFTEEN YEARS. They cost nearly twice as much, but they last four or five times as long, and the people are finding out they have been making a grave mistake in buying the "CHEAP JOHN" grades. We notice this in the brisk trade we are having in the HIGH GRADE WORK this season.

We carry some cheap buggies too for those who haven't the means to buy the best. Our assortment contains a number of wire wheel fancy jobs. We are making good our promise to carry the biggest line of Buggies and Carriages to be found in any one house in the State.

CAN YOU AFFORD

To put your handsome "RADIANT HOME" HEATER out in the coal house for the summer, take risk of breakage and rust and pay in-ex-set it up again next Fall? Now and satisfactory arrangement and are responsible for all breakage in storage. The plated rimming is plainly marked on tags securely fastened to the stove and to each separate part and an itemized receipt is sent to you showing what we are to return, amount of charges and repairs if any are required. Notify us when you want the stove returned and we replace it already for fire, black parts well polished, plated work highly burnished and looking just like new. Our men are careful and make no noise nor dirt in removing or replacing stoves. That the charges are fair and the service satisfactory is amply shown in the fact that those who have stored stoves with us four years are now giving us their business for this year. Think this over and ask your neighbor what she thinks about it.

We only mentioned "Radiant Home," but for storage any name will do. We take all that offer, but this is a good place to remind you that five years service has not yet made demand for one piece of repair for "Radiant Home" Stoves. You know the fire pots are fully guaranteed for five years.
